

How to Weigh a Cat

Place a towel or blanket on the surface and zero the scale.

Weigh the cat on the blanket. If necessary, weigh the cat, blanket, and carrier together.

At the end of the visit, if the cat can be safely removed from the carrier, weigh just the carrier and subtract the difference.

Record weights and body condition scores from each examination at least every 6-12 months.